Roxy

Roxy is a DARLING 6-month old Boxer/Rat Terrier mix. She is only about 30 lbs. and the vet thinks she will top out around 40 lbs. She is playful, goofy, and as happy as can be. She loves sleeping on her dog bed, generally not stirring until she is told that it is time to go outside in the morning. She knows how to sit, shake, lay down, leave it, wait, and walks like a champ on a leash. We are still working on her recall. We adopted her at 4 months old from Placer, and she has been well loved and cared for, and is up to date on all shots/de-worming etc. She loves her lab-brother and toys. Although she enjoys carrying them around more than being rough with them. Roxy is awesome, but would prefer to be a house-dog, and we live on a ranch. She is not a ranch dog and cannot help herself when she is around chickens... they're just too much fun to go after! Roxy has been around kids and cats, although never unsupervised due to her chicken-issue.

Roxy deserves a family who will enjoy taking her on outings and letting her snooze the night away in a cozy bed.
