Sugar b

Sugar b is 8 years old. I raised her from four days old. She's a very, very sweet kitty cat. She would have to be with a couple or one person that doesn't have other animals. She's a little bit independent, she loves to play, loves sleeping on her back and she loves to sleep next to you on her side or in bed. When you pick her up she'll make a squealing sound (that's just what she does) and likes to be in little boxes and hiding. She can also fetch, she likes those little round toys with a little bell inside. She comes to her name when she wants to. Sugar is an inside kitty cat, I hate giving get up but I have to move. 😞
